

ASSEMBLER – 1st SHIFT

We have an immediate opportunities available in Sandusky, OH for a Powered Assembler on our 1st shift team (7 am-3:30 pm). This position assembles unpowered and powered conveyor units and related equipment for large material handling systems.

KEY DUTIES:

- Assemble units requiring motors, reducers, and variable frequency drives
- Mechanically inclined able to use various hand and power tools
- Able to read tape measure within 1/16 inch
- Able to determine calculations from metric to standard measure and vice versa
- Use and interpret readings from various gauges (tachometers, volt meters, calipers) in quality process
- Perform other plant operations-related duties as assigned

The candidate will have a High School Diploma/GED with a focus in the mechanical/industrial tech area; a strong mechanical aptitude; as well as a minimum of 2 years maintenance or machine building/assembly experience preferred. A proven ability to read a tape measure as well as read and interpret blueprints/mechanical drawings. This position requires solid math skills (decimals, fractions, etc.), proven troubleshooting skills; as well as a high level of attention to detail, quality, and safety.